VMCA Announces 2014 Clerk of the Year

Norfolk, VA – The Virginia Municipal Clerks Association (VMCA) announced that Pamela L. Foshee, MMC, Deputy City Clerk, City of Newport News, has been selected as the 2014 Clerk of the Year during its 37th Annual Conference and business meeting held April 16-18 at the Sheraton Norfolk Waterside, 777 Waterside Drive, Norfolk, Virginia.

The 2014 Clerk of the Year Committee reported that Ms. Foshee had been selected from a group of 11 clerks from the Commonwealth of Virginia who had been nominated by 43 individual submissions based on service to the VMCA; extraordinary performance in their job; and community service engagement.

Since joining the VMCA, Ms. Foshee has provided outstanding service to the organization and most notably served as Treasurer since 2006. As evidenced by her multiple nominations by municipal clerks across the Commonwealth, she is well respected by her peers for her dedication to the profession, her strong work ethic, her upbeat personality, and her skill in providing prompt, concise reports. She has been described as someone who works tirelessly and diligently to make certain that tasks are completed.

Ms. Foshee has worked hard to achieve her designation as Master Municipal Clerk (MMC) through the International Institute of Municipal Clerks (IIMC) and has been an inspiration to municipal clerks across Virginia.

Ms. Foshee is the proud single mother of three children whom she raised and has seen grow, mature and earn their college degrees.

The Virginia Municipal Clerks Association promotes ongoing professional development for municipal clerks and is open to every city, town and county in the Commonwealth of Virginia.
